

2019 ONA Convention Banquet

The ONA Kingston Banquet is fast approaching, did you secure your tickets yet by filling out the registration form? The ONA banquet is the highlight of the convention as we present the awards to those that have been selected by the Awards committee. Along with that comes a great meal and time to socialize with all your friends and relatives. Another highlight of the banquet is the Keynote Speaker! This year we are able to present to you another great speaker.

2019 ONA BANQUET KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Peter Gower came to Canada in 1967 and spent his teaching career in Grey and Bruce Counties, with three years in Kenya. He retired with his wife Jean to Kingston in 2000, and has indulged here in his hobby of local history. He chaired the Kingston Municipal Heritage Committee for eight years, and was President of the Kingston Historical Society from 2013 to 2016. He has written three books, two on Kingston's contribution to the First World War, and his most recent, "Kingston in 150 Pictures" (available on Amazon) is a collection of vignettes of the city. He lives almost within sight of the Ambassador Hotel & Conference Centre.

As our Keynote Speaker for our 2019 ONA banquet to be held Saturday evening during our convention, Peter will talk on "Kingston: People, buildings and events".

Ensure that you register for the convention and include the banquet to hear Peter speak!
