ARTICLE 4 - MEMBERS - APPLICATION, ADMISSION AND DUESSection 1

Applications to become regular, spousal, junior, life or affiliate members shall be made on an official application form. Such applications shall, in the case of regular, spousal, life, or affiliate members, bear the name and address of the applicant and in the case of the junior member the age at last birthday.

Section 2

Applications to become corporate members shall be made in writing on an official application form, signed by two of the applicant's executive officers.

Section 3

Applications for all memberships, accompanied by one year's membership dues, shall be sent to the Membership Chairman. Upon confirmation of eligibility, the applicant shall be admitted to membership immediately and the Membership Chairman shall cause notice of the admission to be published in the next issue of the Official Publication of the Association.

Section 4

Upon publishing the new member's admission to membership in the Official Publication of the Association, a period of two months is allowed for written objections to such admission to be submitted to the Membership Chairman.

Section 5

If written and timely objection to such admission is received by the Membership Chairman, he shall refer the matter to the President, who shall thereupon inform the applicant of the nature of the objection and request an answer thereto not later than one month after sending of such notice. When this has been received, the President shall forward all the available information to the Executive for consideration and action. The Executive may either confirm or annul such admission and in either event the President shall notify the Membership Chairman of the decision who shall inform the applicant. If the admission be annulled, the Membership Chairman will cause the advanced dues to be returned to the applicant.

Section 6

Honorary and affiliate members shall be relieved from the payment of any membership dues.

Section 7

All dues for members shall be such as established from time to time by the Executive of the Association.

Section 8

Applications for life membership, if found to be in order, shall be accepted forthwith by the Membership Chairman and notice to such membership shall be published in the next succeeding issue of the Official Publication. The dues for life members shall be payable in a lump sum at the time of application as a life member. After payment of said sum, life members shall not be required to pay any additional membership dues during their lifetime.

ARTICLE 5 - MEMBERS - RESIGNATIONS, SUSPENSION AND EXPULSIONSection 1

No member shall be permitted to resign from the Association while he is indebted to it in any manner or while charges are pending against him.

Section 2

Annual dues shall be payable in advance on January 1st of each year. Any member who fails to pay his dues before March 1st of any year shall be liable to lose his membership, in which case his name shall be dropped from the membership rolls and removed from the mailing list. Any member who has lost his membership for non-payment of dues or who has resigned, may be reinstated upon payment of arrears due at the time of the loss of membership or resignation, provided no charges are pending against him, and in such case, only if the charges are withdrawn or dismissed.

Section 3

Whenever written charges are brought against any member for conduct prejudicial to the welfare of the Association, such charges shall be signed by the person making them. The identity of the person making such charges shall not be made known, except to the Executive. Such charges, with particulars thereof, shall be filed with the President, who shall thereupon furnish the accused member with a written copy thereof. The accused member shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to enter a written defense to such charges. The matter shall then be referred to the Executive, which shall study the case. The Executive may dismiss such charges, or it may censure, suspend or expel the accused member. It may cause the result of its action to be published in the Official Publication. Until the final decision of the Executive, the accused member shall continue in good standing.

Section 4

Members in arrears for any cause for more than one calendar year, provided that the arrears are not a result of expulsion from the Association, shall be reinstated on payment of the current year's dues, but will be assigned a new membership number.

Section 5

Any portion of the membership dues, overpaid by the member at the time of his "suspension," "expulsion" or "resignation by request," shall be refunded to that person.

Section 6

In the event of a Life Membership being terminated, other than by death, dues shall be refunded on the basis of the assumption that the life expectancy of the member was ten years after the date of admission as a Life Member.

Section 7

The conduct of the members shall be guided by the Code of Ethics which shall be included in the By-Laws of the Association.

ARTICLE 6 – OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1

The elected officers of the Association shall be: the President, the First Vice President and the Second Vice President.

Section 2

The appointed officers of the Association shall consist of the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Membership Chairman and at most 12 Area Directors representing Ontario as detailed in the By-Laws of the Association.

Section 3

The President, the First Vice President, the Second Vice President, the Secretary and the Treasurer shall be directors of the Association ex officio and shall receive all the rights and responsibilities of a director. No person may hold more than one of the aforementioned offices.

Section 4

The governing body of the Association shall consist of all officers noted in Sections 1 and 2, as well as the Immediate Past President and shall be known as the Executive. Each member of the Executive shall have full voting rights.

Section 5

The duties of the officers shall be to conduct the affairs of the Association in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and of any By-Laws enacted thereunder. The duties shall be more specifically detailed in the By-Laws of the Association.

Section 6

The duties of the elected officers shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) To appoint officers and directors, bi-annually or at such other times as the offices may be vacant,
- (b) To appoint additional officers to the following offices: Editor, Librarian, Archivist, and such offices as the Executive may deem advisable. Assistants to these officers may be appointed at the discretion of the Executive.

Section 7

Duties of the Executive shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) To decide on the time and place for holding the General Meeting;
- (b) To prescribe the form of the official membership applications and official ballots;
- (c) To rule on the admission of applicants against whom objections have been raised;
- (d) To rule on the disposition of formal charges brought against a member of the Association;
- (e) To fix advertising rates for space in the official publication and set rules and regulations in connection therewith;

- (f) To fix the compensation paid to any officers to whom such compensation is paid;
- (g) To prescribe which officers shall be bonded and to fix the amounts thereof;
- (h) To remove from office any officer who does not or cannot meet the requirements of the office;
- (i) To carry on and direct the affairs to the Association generally.

ARTICLE 7 - OFFICERS - ELECTION

Section 1

Any Life Member or Regular Member who has been in good standing for two years or longer shall be eligible to hold office in the Association. In the event that no eligible member is nominated to any position, the Executive shall have the authority to appoint any member in good standing by a majority vote of the Executive.

Section 2

No member shall be elected for or appointed to the office of President until he has served a full two year term as an elected or appointed officer of the Executive.

Section 3

Elections shall be held every two years and shall take place prior to the Annual General Meeting.

Section 4

In an election year, the President shall make a call for nominations of elected officers six months prior to the opening of the Annual General Meeting, in the official publication and at the same time shall appoint an election committee, consisting of a chairman and two members. Members of the committee shall not be seeking the office of President, First Vice-President, or Second Vice-President.

Section 5

All nominations shall be made in writing, signed by a member in good standing or by an officer of a member club that is in good standing, and sent to the Chairman of the Elections Committee. All nominations must be accompanied by a written acceptance from the nominee or a declaration signed by the nominators stating that the nominee shall stand for office if elected. Failure to do this, the nomination shall be invalid and the nominee shall be so advised.

Section 6

Nominations shall close four months prior to the opening of the Annual General Meeting.

Section 7

The Chairman of the Election Committee shall cause the names of the nominees to be published three months prior to the opening of the Annual General Meeting in the official publication.

Section 8

The Election Committee shall cause the names of all nominees to be printed on official ballots and shall mail one official ballot to each member in good standing 60 days prior to the opening of the Annual General Meeting, together with an envelope marked "Official Ballot" and an envelope addressed to the Chairman of the Election Committee.

Section 9

The unopened envelopes, containing the marked ballots, shall be taken by the Chairman of the Election Committee to the Annual Convention where they shall be opened on the first day of the Convention, by the Chairman in the presence of at least one other member of the Committee and the ballots counted. In the event of a tie, the matter shall be reported to the President, who shall call for a vote from the floor of the Annual General Meeting to break the tie. The results of the election shall be announced by the Chairman of the Election Committee at the first session of the Annual General Meeting. The ballots shall be held by the Chairman of the Election Committee for at least one year and then may be destroyed on the direction of the President.

Section 10

Any office for which no nominations have been received shall be filled by the following procedure: nominations from the floor at the Annual General Meeting, then voted on at the Annual General Meeting. If no nominations are received from the floor at the Annual General Meeting, then filled by the elected officers at a regular executive meeting.

Section 11

All elected officers shall assume their duties at the last session of the Annual General Meeting and shall hold office for two years from that time and until their successors have been duly elected and installed.

Section 12

Each officer, at the expiration of his term of office shall within 30 days deliver to his successor all books, papers, money or other property of the Association in his possession. He shall not be relieved from his bond or obligation until this requirement has been fulfilled.

Section 13

The term of office of an elected president shall be limited to a two-year term. However, he may seek a mandate for another two years if he so desires to remain in office, but shall be limited to two consecutive terms. Any Past-President may be eligible for this office.

Section 14

No member shall stand for election for more than one office.

ARTICLE 8 - MEETINGS

Section 1

The ultimate authority in Association matters shall be a properly convened General Meeting. This will usually be the Annual General Meeting held at the time of the Annual Convention. In case of extreme importance a Special General Meeting may be called by the President. Notice of such meeting shall be published in the Official Publication of the Association at least one month prior to such meetings.

Section 2

In the period between General Meetings, the Executive shall have full power to act for the Association in accordance with the terms of the Constitution.

Section 3

A quorum at any General Meeting shall be at least five members of the Executive and five other Regular or Life members, all present in person.

Section 4

The Executive shall meet prior to all General Meetings and at such other times as called by the President.

Section 5

A quorum at any Executive meeting shall consist of:

- a) Two directors, at least one of which must be either the President, First Vice President or the Second Vice President, plus
- b) Four other members of the Executive.

ARTICLE 9 - CONVENTIONS

Section 1

The Association may meet in convention once every year, at such time and place as may be decided upon by the Executive. The time and place thereof shall be announced by the President in at least three issues of the Official Publication prior to said Convention.

Section 2

Applications for the privilege of sponsoring a convention may be made by any Corporate Member or group of Regular Members. Such application shall be sent to the President at least one year in advance and should clearly state what facilities are available in the locality, the number of persons available to work out and handle the details of the convention, and the assurance that proper financial backing can be provided to run such a convention. A tentative program should accompany the application and preference should be given to the applicant that incorporates in the convention programme the useful exchange of numismatic information through lectures or discussion groups.

Section 3

In the event that no applications are received for the privilege of sponsoring a convention in any particular year, or if the circumstances should warrant it, the convention may be held under the sponsorship of a committee appointed by the President for that purpose.

Section 4

The privilege of sponsoring a convention will be assigned by Executive. The sponsoring organization shall assume all responsibility for the successful operation of the convention subject to guidance from O.N.A. Convention Committee. Any financial arrangements shall be at discretion of the Executive and the Sponsors.

Section 5

The selection of an auctioneer to conduct an auction at an Annual Convention shall be the prerogative of the Executive.

ARTICLE 10 - AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTIONSection 1

The Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds majority vote of the members present at any General Meeting. Proposed changes shall be submitted to the Executive in writing at least one hundred and twenty days before such meeting and shall be circulated to all members at least thirty days before the date of such meetings.
